For the National Era. (Our friends are requested to send to LAW.) GREENWOOD LEAVES FROM OVER THE SEA. NO. 18.

BLACKBURN HALL, LONDON. October 4, 1851.

MY DEAR MRS.—I believe that in my last letter I brought up at the foot of Ben Lomond. The scene of the mountain from Keweenaw is not so perfect or very difficult, but is exceeding tedious. The distance is about six miles, and the ascent is a very laborious one. To the business—strong, quiet, and sure-footed animals, fortunately for us, as after the long and tedious journey, we were met in an usually bad condition, with loose shoes, slippery rocks, deep mire, and shaky boys.

We started, well wrapped in cloaks, shawls, and carrying the luggage on our backs, and on the summit, but we soon found ourselves obliged to lay aside our other articles of dress, and to the business—strong, quiet, and sure-footed animals, fortunately for us, as after the long and tedious journey, we were met in an usually bad condition, with loose shoes, slippery rocks, deep mire, and shaky boys.

LETTER FROM THE NORTHWEST.

ST. ANTHONY'S FALLS, Oct. 25, 1852.

To the Editor of the National Era:

To those who think of coming to this Territory, it is a matter of interest to know what the country is like. It is a beautiful country, and where we can find our products, and where we can find our markets. It is a beautiful country, and where we can find our products, and where we can find our markets.

TO THOSE WHO THINK OF COMING TO THIS TERRITORY, IT IS A MATTER OF INTEREST TO KNOW WHAT THE COUNTRY IS LIKE. IT IS A BEAUTIFUL COUNTRY, AND WHERE WE CAN FIND OUR PRODUCTS, AND WHERE WE CAN FIND OUR MARKETS.

RELIGIOUS ANTI-SLAVERY CORRECTION.

MINNEAPOLIS, CONN., November, 1852.

To the Editor of the National Era:

Now that the Presidential campaign is over, and the minds of the people are beginning to clear away, it might be well to have a general gathering of the friends of the cause of Freedom, more especially upon the case of Freedom. Suppose Philadelphia were selected as the place, and Christmas week as time, for the meeting of the friends of the cause of Freedom. It would be a grand opportunity for the friends of the cause of Freedom to meet and discuss the cause of Freedom.
